

11152 Florentine green fine, 60-120 μ , washed

From a hard green-black stone, a basalt, from the area of Volterra / Tuscany, we obtain in a complex grinding and slurry process a very beautiful brownish-green earth, which is particularly suitable in fine grinding as a base for incarnate and tempera painting, in the coarser grinding for fresco.