

12040 Shungite, Russian icon painter black,
< 80 μ

Shungite is a special coal from Karelia in Russia. The coal formed from marine algae over 600 million years ago. In shungite there is a high percentage of carbon in a cage structure, this gives the black its special depth. Shungite is the classic black of northern Russian icon painting, clashingly rough and cold.